ROBBING THE MAILS.

Thos. R. Taylor a Route Agent on the L. &amp; G. Road Arrested and Held to Bail in the Sum of $2,000.

Special Agents Brewster Cameron and Henry Booth Work up the Case with Decoy Letters.

Their Evidence Very Strong Against

Taylor.

For the past two years there have been complaints of various characters sent to the general post-office, and from them to the General office at Washington, that letters containing money, which had been properly sealed, stamped and addressed, had never reached their destination, and that the money was being stolen.

The Postmaster General, Mr. Blair, in order to ferret out the matter, and bring to justice the perpetrators of the violation, The efforts of the special agents seemed to be of no avail, however, for a long time in pointing directly at the culprit, but suspicion pointed in a very strong manner toward one of the route agents on the line between Leavenworth and Coffeyville. The name of the suspected agent is

THOMAS R. TAYLOR.

The principal reason why he more than others should be suspected seemed to be the fact that he was the only one of the agents who had been frequently suspicious of the route agent, and that he had been frequently

suspicious of the route agent, and that

suspicious of the route agent, and that

THE GOSPEL.

Synopsis of Sunday's Sermons.

ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL.

The services at this church were attended by the usual congregation of Sunday.

The music, consisting of Jackson's Te Deum, Jubilate Deo, by Banks, and the usual choir, was well rendered by a quartet composed of Messrs.

Anthony and Gilpatrick, and Messrs.

Andrew and Eddy, with Miss Julia

Elliott at the organ.

After the regular service, Mr. Daniel occupied fifteen minutes with his sermon, on the text, "Unto me, therefore, who believe, he is precious."

Mr. Daniel gave notice that, in accordance with the action of the board of Missions, he would be on duty on the morning of the Fourth of July at 8 o'clock.

A committee of ministers of this church would also be held during the present week, commencing with services at 8 o'clock

Wednesday evening.

There will be services at 10 o'clock

Thursday morning, at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, and at 10 o'clock Friday morning.

It is one of the duties of the church to have a service of prayer, and the committee will take place, day notice of which will be given.

SERVICES AT THE PENITENTIARY.

After the usual preliminary, the chaplain read the President's proclamation for

FASHIONABLE.

Hints for summer wear are large.

The revolution has had a high pointed crown and many features.

Ribbons of silk and gauze are very fashionable for summer.

All toilets are much trimmed with ribbons.

The fashionable material, basiste, comes in all shades.

Dresses appear to
